11 Kristin K. Mayes, et al.,

12 Defendants.

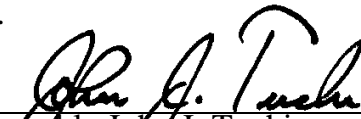

No. CV-22-01431-PHX-JJT

ORDER

13 The Court's review of the docket reveals that Plaintiffs' Motion for Judgment on 14 the Pleadings (Doc. 54) against Defendant Kristin K. Mayes, who is named in her official
15 capacity as Arizona Attorney General,¹ is now fully briefed and ripe for resolution.² Before 16 it begins expending judicial resources to analyze the merits of Plaintiffs' Motion and 17 Defendant's Response in opposition thereto, the Court would benefit from a status update
18 from the relevant parties. Accordingly,

19 IT IS ORDERED that counsel for Plaintiffs and Defendant Mayes shall meet and 20 confer and file a status report by April 21, 2023 at 5:00 p.m. (Arizona time).

21 Dated this 11th day of April, 2023.

22
23 Honorable John J. Tuchi
24 United States District Judge

25 ¹ On March 15, 2023, a Notice of Substitution of Public Officer (Doc. 59) was filed
26 automatically substituting Defendant Mayes for prior Attorney General Mark Brnovich.

27 ² Also pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' Motion for Default Judgment (Doc. 56)
28 against Defendants Rachel Mitchell and Paul Penzone, who are named in their official capacities as Maricopa County Attorney and Maricopa County Sheriff, respectively. The Court will resolve Plaintiffs' Motion for Default Judgment in due course.
